Dear Amine

Around the world, people gather to eat lunch or dinner. Every culture has developed these social manners in different ways. For example, Ethiopian food is eaten with hands, usually from a large communal plate. Several delicious meals are put together in a plate with some Injera (a flat Ethiopian bread) and the guests sit around it.

The proper way to eat Ethiopian food is to tear off a piece of the bread, grab some food that is close to you with it, and put it in your mouth. Because the food is usually touched with the hands, they always make sure to wash them before and after the meal. The left hand is considered unclean, so it is advisable and polite to only use your right hand to eat. Please, answer me soon, I 'm waiting for reply

Bye for now,

OKUNKU
