

Third Term

EXAM

The text:

This is James; he's not fine he is overweight. James feels tired and sick all the time. He doesn't practice sport at all. He is a "couch potato" it means he spends much time watching TV and eating salted crisps or chips. James loves fast food, fizzy drinks and lemonade.

One day James visited a doctor and asked for advice. The doctor said: "You should not eat snacks and fast food like pizza and hamburgers because they're unhealthy; they contain a lot of fats and salt. You should eat healthy food such as: vegetables and fruits. You have to follow a diet to get fit and healthy and also you must practice sport everyday..."
